SIXTY-FIVE LODGES

Out of Seventy-three in the State Represented at Eleventh Annual Session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W.—Officers Elected—Next Meeting at New London.

Thursday the eleventh annual stated meeting of the grand lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen of Connecticut, was held in A. B. S. hall. There was a large attendance of delegates from the subordinate lodges throughout the state. A number of the supreme lodge officers and several delegates arrived Wednesday and with those who came in on the early trains Thursday forenoon was brought up to considerably over the hundred mark. The headquarters for the visiting delegates was established at Hotel Hooker.

All the delegates were enthusiastic over the future success of the organization. It had been planned by the reception committee to show the delegates about the city, but because of the continual rain this feature of the convention was abandoned.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock the supreme and grand lodge officers with the delegates met at A. B. S. hall and the preliminary work of the several committees was completed.

At 10:15, Grand Master Workman Edward H. Farren of New Haven presided over the grand lodge. He made announcement of these committees: Committee on Credentials—Roger E. Dickinson, chairman, Pyramid lodge, No. 45; John H. Walsh, Nutmeg lodge, No. 55; Hiram M. Hodgdon, Thames lodge, No. 13.

New Business—Clarendon C. Bulkeley, chairman, Nathan Hale lodge, No. 29; Patrick W. Salmon, Terry lodge, No. 28; William J. Andrews, Willimantic lodge, No. 11; David Vennard, Stonington lodge, No. 50; Jacob Holtzhauser, A. W. Harvey lodge, No. 49. Good of the Order—Frank H. Wheeler, chairman, Commonwealth lodge, No. 49; Thomas J. Kinnare, East Dock lodge, No. 28; George H. Champlin, Columbia lodge, No. 78; Dennis Hayes, Winsted lodge, No. 7; Henry L. Maynard, Sprague lodge, No. 9.

Memorials—Albert H. Barclay, chairman, Israel Putnam lodge, No. 31; George P. Hill, Union lodge, No. 10; Jesse B. Lockwood, Golden Hill lodge, No. 35.

It was reported by the credentials committee that delegates representing 65 out of 73 lodges in the state were present, leaving only eight lodges without representation. The reading of the journal of the proceedings of the tenth stated meeting held in Bridgeport, as printed and issued by Grand Recorder Stroth, was dispensed with, and approved. The report of the grand master workman and that with the reports of the grand recorder, finance committee, and the committee on laws and appeals was by vote referred to the committee on new business.

Officers Elected.

An invitation was read from Sprague lodge, No. 9, of New London, endorsed by ten lodges in that vicinity, to hold the next stated grand lodge session in New London, October, 1912. The nomination of officers was next made the order of business, followed by their election resulting as follows:

Past grand master workman, Edward H. Farren, East Rock lodge, New Haven; grand master workman, Chas. S. Brightman, lodge No. 50, Stonington; grand foreman, C. Herbert Bishop, Pyramid lodge, No. 45, New Haven; grand overseer, William C. Johnson, Wadsworth lodge, No. 60, Hartford; grand recorder, George Stroth, Nutmeg lodge, No. 55, East Hartford; grand receiver, James R. Sloane, Silver City lodge, No. 3, Meriden; grand guide, Alphonse Collins, Nathan Hale lodge, No. 49, Hartford; member of finance committee for three years, Asaph H. Hale, Middlesex lodge, No. 32, Portland; representatives to supreme lodge, Past Grand Master Workman Frank E. Clark of Turner-ville, John C. Trant of Hartford, Edward H. Farren of New Haven; grand inside watchman, George H. Beeser, Housatonic Valley lodge, No. 72, Cornwall Bridge; grand outside watchman, Felix S. Meigs, Farren lodge, No. 57, Bridgeport.

Thirteen Deaths During Year.

Various reports were made by the chairman of the executive committee and on law and appeal by Edward Currie Gallagher. The recommendations of the finance committee were made by Edward E. Mix that was followed by the report of the memorials committee showing the honored dead numbered thirteen the past year. Resolutions to that effect were prepared and adopted. The morning session concluded with an able address on the good of the order by Supreme Master Workman Will C. Navis. The delegates marched in a body to Grand Army hall where 114 sat down to an excellent dinner prepared and served by Francis S. Long Woman's Relief corps No. 28.

Afternoon Session.

At 2:30 o'clock the session reconvened and the remainder of the business was transacted in a short time. The report of the committee on good of the order was first taken up. Various communications, petitions and recommendations were read and after upon, after which the various reports were accepted. The officers as elected were duly installed by Supreme Master Workman Will C. Navis, assisted by Supreme Master Foreman John Currie Gallagher and Supreme Watchman Charles C. Rhodes. Following the ceremony of installation, the officers took the opportunity to express to the grand lodge their pleasure at being able to be present and extended congratulations for the efficient work that had been done and the fine list of efficient officers chosen to carry out the work of the order for the ensuing year.

Dr. Frank H. Wheeler of New York, who was appointed grand medical examiner for the organization in the state ten years ago, and who has held the office ever since, was unanimously given the honor of past grand master, the highest honor that may be given a member under the laws, outside the chair.

Adjournment was taken at 3:45 o'clock until next year at New London. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the sessions of Thursday from the local lodge comprised William J. Andrews, John Andrews, Eugene J. Randall, James E. Lynch and A. H. Burleson.

Assessors to Organize.

The first official meeting of the new board of assessors will be held today (Friday) in the rooms of the board of selectmen for organization and will be in session therein daily until November 2.

Infant's Funeral.

Corra Eveline, the one month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noe Deinde of Lafayette street, died Wednesday evening of infantile trouble. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with burial in St. Joseph's rectory.

Home from Southern Trip.

Mayor D. P. Dunn and wife have returned from their southern trip and report an enjoyable time. They stopped in New York a few days upon their return from the south and witness the world's series ball games on Saturday and Tuesday. While in Arlington cemetery the mayor visited the grave of Rear Admiral Schley, also the grave of Charles Hooks, formerly of this city, who was employed by the government at Washington, and who died there. The mayor brought back two flowers, one from each grave.

City Court Cases.

Toney Lovey was arraigned in police court Thursday morning on the charge of breach of the peace. After hearing a number of witnesses, the court found him guilty and imposed a fine of $7 and costs, amounting to $15.20, which he paid.

Gilbert O'Connor was arraigned on the charge of intoxication, found guilty and fined $3 and costs.

Painters Enjoy Smoker.

The painters local at its regular meeting Thursday evening in A. B. S. hall gave a supper and smoker that was attended and greatly enjoyed by a large number of its members. This was the first of a series by the local for the fall and winter months.
